La Bourrée droite de Reuilly

(France, Berry)

A typical bourrée from Lower-Berry, the crossing over is different from a regular bourrée. Learned from Paul Bouard, France 1967.

| CD:        |      | Echos de l'Hexagone, Band 9  | 3/4 meter  |
|------------|------|--|------------|
| Formation: |      | Cpls in longways formation, M on one side facing W, R hands joined during the whole dance. |            |
| Meas       |      | Pattern   |            |
| В          | 1-4  | INTRODUCTION. No action.   |            |
|            |      | PART I. AVANT-DEUX (fwd and back)  |            |
| Α          | 1-4  | All starting on L, M move fwd, W move back with Avant-deux droit steps.                    |            |
|            | 5-8  | Reverse meas 1-4, M move bkwd and W fwd.   |            |
|            |      | Note: dancers are not moving in a straight line. They describe an elliptical pattern       | l . |
| A          | 9-16 | Repeat meas 1-8.   |            |
|            |      | PART II. PASTOURELLE (changing place turning W)  |            |
| В          | 1-2  | Ptrs change places, M turning W CCW under the joined R hands, using 2 bourrée              | steps.     |
|            | 3-4  | In ptr's place, dance 2 bourrée steps.   | •          |
|            | 5-8  | Repeat meas 1-4.   |            |
| В          | 9-16 | Repeat meas 1-8.   |            |
|            |      | Repeat from beginning.   |            |

Presented by Germain Hebert