

BERATIS
(Épiros, Greece)

The Berátis is done in Épiros. The name refers to the town of Berátis in northern Épiros (now part of Albania). It is similar to Tsamikos, both in music and style. It is for men only, unlike the Tsamikos which has become Pan-Hellenic and is now done by women also. There is also a similarity to the Zagorísios from Épiros. In fact, rhythmically the Zagorísios is one and two thirds of a Tsamikos rhythm and Berátis is two and two thirds of a Tsamikos rhythm. The Tsamikos is , the Zagorísios is , and the Berátis is .

Formation: Men in a broken circle with hands joined at shldr level, elbows bent and down.
